2011 Faculty Positions Advertised

This C-Brief provides data about the communication faculty teaching positions advertised in NCA publications (CRTNET and the NCA's online/print (Spectra) job postings). The data available here is an addendum to the 2005-2010 Analysis of Faculty Teaching Positions Advertised.

The data (in figure 1) indicates a growth in communication faculty positions advertised from 2009 to 2011 (from 346 to 533). Figure 2 shows the peak months for job advertisements to be August, September and October each year.
